SIGNIFICANCE

19. Briefly state historical and/or architectural importance (include dates, events, and persons associated with the site.)

Otto and Nora Schliecker bought this home from a Mr. Mast in 1926. They had four daughters and one son - Ruth Van Cleve, Helen Fiehnman, Clara Smith, Margaret Winters and Frederick Schliecker, who lived in this home.

The home was located at 279 Arques Street. When Arques Street became Sunnyvale Avenue, the City of Sunnyvale bought the land the home was sitting on for parking. The City said they could have the home. Ruth Van Cleve and her husband, Harry, had the home moved to 585 Old San Francisco Road.

They lived in the home until 1968 when they gave the home to the Methodist Church. The Methodist Church sold the home to Mary Baader in 1972.

585 Old San Francisco Road

This single story, cross gabled, wood framed farm house originally was located at 279 Arques Street. It was moved to its present location to make room for city parking. Probably built by Mr. Mast, who was a contractor/carpenter, it is a good example of styles in transition. Its cross gabled form and hipped main roof are from the Queen Anne period. Its decorations come from the Colonial Revival style, as identified by its use of diamond shaped window glazing and pattern shingles plus the fact that none of its elements extend beyond the roof eave line, including the angled bay. One should note the particularly handsome gable ends with tripartite arched vents and clever wood work in the shingles. The house was constructed in 1910, the same year during which Mast built the house at 252 Bayview which is identified with his name.
